Ken, I hope this time also works for you. If not, we can schedule another call to introduce you to the project team.

Hi Vivian,
If Monday December 4th works for Ken, I will schedule a call for that day.

I did receive your email and replied on the same day (October 9, 2017; please see below my response). I was mainly trying to estimate the overall cost for processing the new application to relay to BNSF.

“Regarding new homesite lease (HSL) application costs, can you please give me an estimate on the different fees based on your experience? According to the attached HSL application form that we downloaded from the Navajo Land Department website, the following requirements are associated with costs (I filled in some of the fees, so please confirm and fill in the missing information if possible):

1. HSL Application Fee - $30
2. Biological Resource Clearance - $32.50
3. Finalized Homesite Lease - $900
4. Cultural Investigation/Archaeology Inventory Report – Cost Estimate?
5. Certified Legal Land Surveying – Cost Estimate?
6. Environmental Evaluation – Cost Estimate?
7. Any other requirements/fees?

Thank you in advance for your help,”

Maher

Maher:

I might be available on December 4, 2017 only.

I sent an email asking who will pay for Homesite and additional surveys for the Ex. 6 Personal Privacy (PP) have not received a response, so I haven't moved forward on it.

Good morning All,

Steve, thank you for the update and good luck with the NorCal Fire project.

Ken, I'm looking forward to working with you. How's your availability during the first week of December (December 4th) for a conference call to update you on project progress and path forward?

How about you, Vivian? Are you available for a call during the week of December 4th? I was wondering if you heard anything on Ex. 6 Personal Privacy (PP) new homesite lease application and access in general.

Thank you,
Maher

Maher - I'm busy on-scene on the NorCal Fire cleanup for the foreseeable future - my availability is limited till next month.

On another note my colleague Ken Rhame is going to be taking over my lead role on this project effective now. He is also on the NorCal Fire Response work currently but may have some availability in early Dec. I will be available to Ken, Vivian and you in support role as needed as work proceeds.
